3-TIER PANCHAYAT GENERAL ELECTION
1997

- FOREWORD -

When the State Election Commission was constituted in May, 1994 under Article 243 K of the Constitution of India, elected Panchayats at two levels namely Gram Panchayat and Panchayat Samiti level were then existing. The State Government notified for holding elections under the auspices of Commission to the Zilla Parishads in October, 94. Unfortunately the Election Commission of India did not make available the ballot boxes despite repeated requests from the then Chief Minister and State Election Commission. The election schedule fixed for holding election of Zilla Parishads was revoked by the Commission in November, 1994.

In August, 95 the State Assembly in its resolution dated 1.8.95 decided to dissolve the elected Panchayats and Panchayat Samitis in order to reconstitute them in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution. As per the provisions of the State Acts, the delimitation of constituencies and reservation thereof is the function of the Collector and the State Government. This work was completed in January, 96 and the State Government requested the Commission towards the end of January, 96 to hold elections to the 3 tier Panchayats throughout the State. In order to hold the elections, preparation of electoral roll was taken up by the Commission which was completed in March 96. Thereafter the State Election Commission notified the election schedule in its Notification dated 15.5.96 to hold the elections between 27.6.96 to 10.7.96. A number of writ cases had also been filed in Orissa High Court against holding of elections. In a letter dated 22.5.96 the State level recognised national political parties requested the Commission to hold the Panchayat elections at a suitable time after the rains. The Commission, with the leave of the Hon'ble High Court, took a decision on 23.5.96 to postpone the elections to a suitable date after the rains. However, the nominations which had been filed were kept alive. After clearance of the litigations at different levels, the State Election Commission notified the revised election schedules of Panchayats on 20.11.96. The nominations, scrutiny, withdrawal etc. were completed between the period from 13.12.96 to 16.12.96. Thereafter, elections to the 3 tier Panchayats were held throughout the State from 11.1.97 to 25.1.97. The Offices of Ward Members, Sarpanches and Panchayat Samiti Members were held on non-political party basis, the elections to Zilla Parishads were held on party symbol basis.

In course of the poll because of violence, snatching of ballots and other incidents, repoll were ordered in 597 polling booths. The elections were completed in all respects including elections to Chairpersons and Vice-Chairpersons by 25.2.97. The list of elected members have been tabulated in Commission's Office.

Information on different aspects of Panchayat elections have been given in subsequent pages.
