25. Presenting nomination paper—(1) The nomination of every candidate for the office of a Councillor shall be made by means of a nomination paper in Form VIII, which shall, on application, be supplied free of cost by the Executive Officer of the Municipality concerned, if he is so authorised by the Election Officer to any elector whose name is registered in the electoral roll of any Ward:

Provided that (a) any elector registered in any Ward of the Municipality shall be eligible to stand as a candidate for the office of a Councillor from any Ward of the Municipality;

(b) no elector who is less than twenty-one years of age as on the date of publication of the preliminary electoral roll referred to in Rule 7 shall be eligible to stand as a candidate for the office of a Councillor.

(2) Every nomination paper shall be signed by two electors of the Ward concerned for the offices of Councillors as proposer and seconder and the candidate shall sign a declaration on it expressing his willingness to stand for election for the office proposed.

(3) An elector shall not sign for more than one candidate.

(4) Every nomination paper shall be presented by the candidate in person or by his proposer and seconder together on the date, at the place and during the hour appointed by the Election Officer or by such other person as may be authorised by him on his behalf.

(5) The Election Officer or such other authorised person shall forthwith number the nominations papers serially in the order in which they are presented to in respect of each office of Councillor and enter on each nomination paper the time at which and the person or persons by whom it is presented.

(6) Where a person has signed, whether as proposer or seconder, more than one nomination paper, the paper received first only shall be deemed to be valid nomination paper.

(7) The nomination paper submitted by every candidate shall contain the name of the party symbol, if-any, allotted by the Election Commission of India to the Political Party by which the candidate has been sponsored.

(8) (i) The nomination paper submitted by an independent candidate shall contain the name of the symbol, which such candidate proposes to adopt from among the symbols specified in Appendix:

Provided that the Election Commission may issue directions to the Election Officers of the Municipalities sufficient before the date of presentation of nomination papers in the matters of giving preference of allotment of symbols out of those specified in the Appendix or any other symbol to a candidate set-up by a political party which is a State Party or a candidate of the registered unrecognised political parties in accordance with the provision contained in the Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1968.

(ii) Where more than one contesting independent candidate have indicated their choice for the same symbol, the Election Officer shall with due regard to the order of nomination papers received by him, allot the symbol, and any such candidate who does not get the symbol of his choice, shall be allotted with another symbol specified in the said Appendix as may be decided by the Election Officer with due consideration of choice of the candidate.

(iii) The decision of the Election Officer in allotment of symbols under this sub- rule subject to directions of Election Commission shall be final.

(9) For the purposes of election contested in political party basis, a candidate shall be deemed to have been duly sponsored by a political party, if—

(i) the candidate has made a declaration in his nomination paper to that effect; and

(ii) a notice in Form X has been delivered to the Election Officer by the time and date indicated in the said form.

NOTE I—The notice in Form X is to be signed by the President or the Secretary of the State Level Organisation of the Political Party or any other office bearer authorised in Form IX by the political party to send such notice; and

NOTE II—The name and specimen signature of such authorised person are to be communicated to the Election Officer at least two days before the date fixed for scrutiny of nomination papers.

(10) The rejection of nomination paper of any candidate on the ground of any irregularity in respect thereof shall not affect the validity of the nomination of the candidate, if the candidate has been duly nominated by means of another nomination paper in respect of which no irregularity has been committed.

(11) The nomination papers received after the date and time appointed shall be rejected.

26. Correcting nomination papers—On the presentation of a nomination paper, the Election Officer or other authorised person referred to in sub-rule (4) of Rule 25 may require the person or persons presenting the same to produce a copy of the electoral roll on which the candidate and his proposer and seconder are registered or of the necessary entries therein and shall satisfy himself that the name and number of the candidate and his proposer and seconder as entered in the nomination paper are the same as those entered in the electoral roll. Explanation—A candidate is said to be duly nominated, 'within the meaning of this sub-rule, in any Ward if his nomination therefore is not rejected under sub-rule(2) of Rule 29 notwithstanding the fact that he withdraws his candidature for such ward within the time specified in sub-rule(1) of Rule 31 or dies before the commencement of the poll therein.

(6) A deposit required to be returned to any person under sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (4) shall, if such person is dead, be returned to his legal representative.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Rule, a deposit made under sub-rule (1) shall not be returned unless a claim therefor is preferred by the person who made the deposit or by his legal representative as the case may be, within six month of the date of the declaration of the results of the election by the Election Officer or where such declaration is made on two different dates within six months of the later of such dates.

28. List of received nomination papers—On the day appointed for the receipt of nomination papers and immediately after the hour for their receipt is past, the Election Officer or other authorised person referred to in sub-rule (4) of Rule 25 shall publish at his office in Odia a list in Form XI of all nominations received with a notice that the nomination paper will be taken up by the Election Officer for scrutiny at his office or other specified place on the date, appointed and at the hour specified under Rule 24.

29. Scrutiny of nomination papers—(1) On the date appointed for the scrutiny of nomination, the candidates, one proposer and one seconder of each candidate and any other person duly authorised in writing by each candidate, and except for the purpose of assisting the Election Officer, no other person, may attend at such time and place as may be specified under Rule 28 and the Election Officer shall give such person all reasonable facilities to examine the nomination papers of all candidates which have been received as aforesaid.

(2) The Election Officer shall then examine the nomination papers and shall decide all objections which may be made at the time to any nominations and may, either on such objections or on his own motion after such summary enquiry, if any, as he thinks necessary, reject any nomination on any of the following grounds:

- (i) that the candidate is ineligible for contesting election under Sections 16 of the Act;
- (ii) that the candidate is unable to produce an affidavit from the competent authority to the effect that he has not more than one spouse living and not more than two children ;
- (iii) that the proposer or seconder is a person whose name is not registered on the electoral roll for the Ward of the Municipality;
- (iv) that there has been any failure on the part of the candidate or his proposer or seconder to comply with any of the provisions of Rule 25 or 27; or
- (v) that in case the election is solely for a seat reserved for the Scheduled Tribes or for Scheduled Castes or for women or for the backward class of citizens, the candidate does not belong to the Scheduled Tribes, or Scheduled Castes or woman or to the backward class of citizens, as the case may be. In the case of a member of the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes or backward class of citizens, the candidate is to prove himself to be a member of such Caste/Tribe/Backward class of citizens by producing a certificate to that effect from the competent authority before the Election Officer.

(3) The Election Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting the same and, if the nomination paper is rejected shall record in writing a brief statement of his reasons for such rejection. The scrutiny shall be completed on the date appointed on this behalf under Rule 24 and no adjournment of the proceeding shall be allowed.

(4) The decision of the Election Officer shall be final.

30. Publication of valid nomination papers and final list of contesting candidates—

(1) (a) On completion of the scrutiny of nomination, the Election Officer shall prepare a list of validly nominated candidates in Form No. XII for each Ward arrange them in alphabetical order in oriya and published on the noticeboard of this office.

(b) After expiry of the period, within which candidature may be withdrawn under sub-rule(1) of Rule 31, the Election Officer shall in Odia, prepare a final list of contesting candidates for each ward in Form XII-A of person whose nominations have not been rejected and who have not withdrawn their candidature and publish it on the noticeboard of his office not later than two days after the expiry of the period within which candidature may be withdrawn and at least four days before the date fixed for the polling.

(2) The list shall contain the names of the candidates in alphabetical order and shall describe them in their nomination papers and also specify the symbols assigned to them under sub-rules (7) and (8) of Rule 25.

(3) Copies of the list shall forthwith be sent to be posted in the offices of the Municipality, and the concerned Sub-Collector. A copy of the list relating to a ward shall also be posted at a conspicuous place at each Ward.

31. Withdrawal of candidature—(1) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature- by giving notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the Election Officer before 3 O'clock in the afternoon on the date appointed by the Election Officer under Rule 24. Unless the notice is delivered by the candidate himself to the Election Officer the candidate's signature on the notice shall be attested by a person empowered to attest Vakalat. A candidate who has withdrawn his candidature shall not be allowed to cancel the withdrawal or to be renominated as a candidate for the same election.

(2) The Election Officer on receiving a notice of withdrawal shall as soon as may be cause a notice of the withdrawal to be published on the noticeboard of his office.

32. Procedure after nomination -(1) The following provisions shall apply in respect of candidates who have been duly nominated and have not withdrawn their candidature in the manner and within the time specified in sub-rule(1) of Rule- 31.

(a) If there is only one candidate duly nominated for the office of Councillor for any Ward of the Municipality, the Election Officer shall declare such candidate to be duly elected.

(b) If there is no candidate duly nominated election proceedings shall be started afresh for filling up-the vacancy, in all respects as if for a new election

Provided that if in respect of a particular Ward reserved for the candidate belonging to the Scheduled Castes or to the Scheduled Tribes or for woman or for backward class of citizens no nomination is filed by any such candidate to contest the election in respect of that Ward the Election Officer shall forthwith report the fact through the Election Commission to the State Government for appropriate action under sub-section (5) of Section 11 of the Act.

(c) If the number of candidates duly nominated exceeds that of the vacancy, a poll shall be taken.

(2) The Election Officer shall forthwith report the names of all candidates declared to be elected under sub-rule (1) to the Election Commission.

35. Appointment of Presiding Officer, Polling Officers and Agents—(T) If a poll has to be taken the Election Officer shall appoint forthwith Presiding Officer and one or more polling Officers for each polling station.

(2) The Election Officer shall provide for each Presiding Officer and Polling Officer such number of clerks as may be necessary and may, if necessary appoint one or more persons to assist the Polling Officer in identifying the electors. Polling Officers shall neither be councillors nor employees of the Municipality concerned.

(3) The Presiding Officer shall keep order at the polling station, shall see that the election is fairly conducted, shall regulate the number of electors to be admitted at one time and shall not allow any other persons except—

(a) the candidate and at each booth one agent of each candidate at a time (hereinafter referred to as the Polling Agent) appointed in writing by the candidate with the prior approval of the Election Officer.

(b) The police or other public servants on duty; and

(c) his own clerks and such persons as the Polling Officer may from time to time admit for the purpose of identifying electors.

36. Provision of polling station—The Election Officer of every Municipality shall with the previous approval of the Election Commission, provide sufficient number of polling stations for each Ward and shall publish in such manner as the Election Commission may direct, a list showing the polling stations so provided and the polling areas for which they have been provided:

Provided that if there is any inconvenience to have polling station in the particular ward the Election Commission may direct to establish the polling station in the neighbouring Ward, but no polling station of any Ward of any Municipality shall be located outside the limits of that Municipality;

Provided further that for good and sufficient reason the Election Commission may allow the Election Officer to change the location of the polling station at any time before the commencement of poll and it shall be the duty of the Election Officer to give wide publicity of such change in the polling area.

37. Polling Booth—Each polling station and at a polling station having more than one polling booth each such booth shall contain a separate compartment in which electors can record their votes screened from observation except in so far as it may be necessary to ensure that the ballot papers are duly placed in boxes. As far as possible separate compartments and separate entrances and exits shall, where action is not taken under Rule 38 be provided for women electors.

38. Deleted

39. Ballot box—(1) The Election Officer shall provide at each polling station sufficient number of ballot boxes according to the requirement. Every ballot box shall be of such design as may be approved by the Election Commission. The ballot boxes shall be so made as to contain a slit for insertion of ballot paper and shall bear labels, both inside and outside, marked with, (a) the name or number of the Ward, (b) the name of the polling station, (c) the serial number of the ballot box used in that polling station (to be filled in at the end of the poll on the label outside the ballot box only) and (d) the date of poll.

(2) Every ballot box shall be so constructed that ballot papers can be introduced therein but cannot be withdrawn there from without the box being unlocked.

40. Arrangements at polling stations—(1) Outside each polling station there shall be displayed prominently-

(a) a notice specifying the polling area, the electors who are entitled to cast their votes at the polling stations and, when the polling area has more than one polling station the particulars of the electors so entitled; and

(b) copies of the lists in Form XII-A of the contesting candidates.

(c) At each polling station there shall be set up one or more voting compartments in which electors can record their votes screened from observation.

(d) The Presiding Officer shall keep at each polling station sufficient number of ballot boxes, copies of the relevant part of the electoral roll, ballot papers, instruments for stamping the distinguishing mark on ballot papers and articles necessary for elector to mark the ballot papers.

41. Prohibition of public meetings and canvassing—(1) No person shall convene hold or attend any public meeting in any polling area during the period of forty-eight hours preceding the hour fixed for the closure of the poll for any election in that polling area.

(2) No person shall, on the date or dates on which a poll is taken, commit any of the following acts within the polling stations, or in any public or private place within a distance of one hundred meters of the polling station, namely:—

- (a) canvassing for votes; or
- (b) soliciting the vote of any elector; or
- (c) persuading any elector not to vote for any particular; candidate; or
- (d) persuading any elector not to vote at the election; or
- (e) exhibiting any notice or sign (other than official notice) relating to election.

(3) Any person who contravene the provision of sub-rules (1) and (2) shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

(4) An offence under this rule shall be cognizable.

42. Placing of ballot boxes—(1) The Presiding Officer at any polling station, immediately before commencement of the poll, shall demonstrate to the polling agents and other persons present at such station that the ballot box is empty and bears the labels referred to in sub-rule (1) of Rule 39 and shall then lock it up and place his seal upon it in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking such seal and allow such polling agents, as may be present and willing to give their seals in the box and thereupon shall place the box so locked and sealed on table in full view of all present.

(2) Before the polling station is opened for the recording of votes, the Presiding Officer shall read before such persons as may be present the provisions of Section 128 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 and shall explain the substance thereof.

43. Ballot Papers—(1) Every ballot paper shall have a counterfoil attached thereto and the said ballot paper and the counterfoil shall be in Form No. XIII and shall be numbered.

(2) Every ballot paper shall be in such size as the Election Commission may direct and the particulars therein shall be written in Oriya.

(3) The names of the candidates shall be arranged on the respective ballot papers in the order which they appear in the list for each ward in Form XII-A.

(4) At the time of issuing a ballot paper to an elector, the Polling Officer shall mark the name of the elector against the entry relating to the elector in the copy of electoral roll set apart for the purpose.

(5) Save as provided in sub-rule (4), no person in the polling station shall note down the serial number of the ballot paper, issued to particular electors.

(6) If two or more candidates bear the same name, they shall be distinguished by the addition of their fathers name or residence or in some other manner.

44. Issue of ballot papers to electors—(1) Immediately before any ballot paper is delivered to an elector the number, name and description of the elector as stated in the electoral roll shall be called out. The Polling Officer shall stamp the ballot paper with such distinguishing mark as the Election Commission may direct and deliver the same to the elector.

45. Voters Procedure—(1) The elector on receiving the ballot paper shall forthwith proceed into the polling compartment, make a mark on the ballot paper with the instrument supplied for the purpose on or against the symbol of the candidate for whom he intends to vote, fold the ballot paper so as to conceal his mark and insert the same into the ballot box and then quit the polling station.

(2) Every elector shall vote without undue delay.

(3) No elector shall be allowed to enter a voting compartment when another elector is present inside it.

(4) The Presiding Officer shall ensure that the ballot paper is duly and properly inserted by the elector in the ballot box.

46. Recording of votes of blind and or infirm elector—(1) If the Presiding Officer is satisfied that owing to blindness or other physical infirmities an elector is unable to recognize the symbol on the ballot paper or to make a mark thereon without assistance, the Presiding Officer shall permit the elector to take with him a companion of not less than 18 years of age to the voting compartment for recording the vote on the ballot paper on his behalf and in accordance with his wishes who would also then fold the said ballot paper so as to conceal the vote and insert it into the ballot box :

Provided that no person shall be permitted to act as the companion of more than one elector at any polling station on the same day:

Provided further that before any person is permitted to act as the companion of an elector on any day under this rule, the person shall be required to declare that he will keep secret the vote recorded by him on behalf of the elector and that he has not already acted as the companion of any other elector at any other polling station on that day.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall keep a record in Form XIV-A of all such cases under this Rule.

47. Special facility to women voters—Special facilities in accordance with instruction, if any, issued by the Election Commission in that behalf, may be accorded to women electors.

48. Questioning voters—(1) When a person presents himself to cast his vote and at any time before a ballot paper is supplied to him the Polling Officer may, of his own accord and shall if so required by a candidate or polling agents, put such person either or both, of the following questions :—

(i) Are you the person enrolled as follows (reading the whole entry from the roll)?

(ii) Have you already voted at the present election at this polling station or at any other polling station?

(2) The person shall not be supplied with a ballot paper unless he gives an unqualified answer to the question/or questions put to him and unless his answer to the first question is in the affirmative and the second in the negative. Except as mentioned here in every person whose name is found on the electoral roll shall be entitled to be supplied with a ballot paper.

49. Safeguards against personation—(1) Every elector about whose answers to the questions put under rule 48 the Polling Officer is satisfied shall allow his left forefinger to be inspected by the Polling Officer and an indelible ink mark to be put on it.

(2) If any elector refuses to allow his left forefinger to be inspected or marked in accordance with sub-rule (i) or has already such a mark on his left forefinger or does any act with a view to removing the ink mark, he shall not be supplied with any ballot paper or allowed to cast his/her vote.

(3) Any reference in this rule to the left forefinger of an elector shall, in the case where the elector has his left forefinger missing, be construed as a reference to any other finger of his left hand, and shall, in the case where all the fingers of his left hands are missing, be construed as a reference to the forefinger or any other finger of his right hand, and shall in the case where all his fingers of both the hands are missing, be construed as a reference to such extremity of his left or right arm as he possesses.

50. Tendered ballot paper—(1) If a person representing himself to be a particular elector named on the electoral roll applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted as such elector, the applicant shall, after satisfactorily answering such questions as the Polling Officer may ask, be entitled to receive a ballot paper in the same manner as any other elector.

(2) The Presiding Officer shall write the word “Tendered” in bold characters on the back of the ballot paper before it is handed over to such person. On receipt of such ballot paper (hereinafter referred to as tendered ballot paper) the elector shall proceed into the compartment for recording his vote and after recording his vote place it in an envelope, specially meant for tendered ballot papers. Thereafter the same shall be handed over by the elector to the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall make an endorsement containing the name of the elector and his number on the electoral roll and the name or number of the ward for which the election is held, and shall set aside the envelope in a separate packet, alongwith the ballot papers in which shall not be counted by the Election Officer. The name of the elector and his number in the electoral roll and the name or distinctive number of the polling station to which the roll relates shall be entered in a list in Form XIV which shall bear the heading, “Tendered votes list”. The person tendering such ballot paper or papers shall sign his name and address on that list or affix his thumb impression thereto.

Explanation—In cases falling under this rule to which rule 51 is also applicable the provisions of this rule as well as of rule 51 shall be followed.

51. Challenged ballot paper—(1) If any candidate or polling agent, declares and undertakes to prove that any person by applying for a ballot paper has committed the offence of personation, the Presiding Officer shall call upon the candidate or agent bringing forward the charge of personation to deposit with him a sum of rupees twenty in cash. A separate deposit of a sum of rupees twenty in cash shall be required for proceeding with each charge of personation. If such deposit is not made the Presiding Officer shall ignore the challenge. Such deposits shall be credited to such funds as may be directed by the Election Commission.

(2) Immediately after the deposit required by sub-rule (i) has been made the Presiding Officer shall obtain a written statement in Form XV which shall be signed by the candidate or agent, as the case may be, and attested by two credible witnesses, in the presence of the Presiding Officer.

(3) The Presiding Officer shall then require the applicant for the ballot paper to write in the list of challenged votes (which shall be in Form XVI) his name and address or if he is unable to write affix his thumb impression thereto and may further require such person to produce evidence of identification.

(4) If the applicant for the ballot paper on being questioned in the manner provided in rule 48 gives unqualified answers to the first question in the affirmative and to the second in the negative he shall be allowed to cast his vote after he has been informed of the penalty for personation. The Presiding Officer shall make a note of the circumstances and of his decision on the list of challenged votes.

(5) The Presiding Officer shall at the close of the poll forward to the Election Officer the statement mentioned in sub-rule (2) enclosed in the packet containing the list of challenged votes, if any.

(6) The Election Officer, after instituting such inquiries as may be necessary, shall take steps to prosecute the persons or person whom he believes to be guilty of the offence of personation. If it is found as a result of the judicial trial that the offence of personation has not been proved the Election Officer shall decide whether the whole or part of the deposit shall be declared forfeited and the amount so forfeited shall be credited to such funds as may be directed by the Election Commission. In coming to a decision on this point the Election Officer shall be guided by the fact and conclusions recorded at the trial. The deposit or such portion thereof as has not been declared forfeited shall be returned to the person who made the deposit.

52. Voting by a voter on duty at another polling station—(1) A Polling Officer, Public Servant or Polling Agent who being entitled to cast his vote in the ward is duly appointed or authorized for duty at a polling station at which he is not ordinarily entitled to record his vote may apply to the Election Officer concerned for a certificate entitling him to record his vote at the polling station where he is employed. The said certificate shall be in Form XVII:

Provided that if the Presiding Officer, a Polling Officer, Public Servant or Polling Agent is on duty at a polling station which is not in the ward in which he is entitled to record his vote, the Election Officer shall in addition to the certificate mentioned above furnish the Presiding Officer concerned with particulars regarding the name and serial number and symbol assigned to the candidate standing for election in that ward and also with ballot paper relating thereto.

(2) A person in possession of a certificate in the form provided under sub-rule (1) shall deliver the certificate to the Polling Officer, who shall thereupon issue ballot paper to the person. Such ballot paper shall be dealt with in the following manner:—

(i) If the polling station at which the person is on duty be in the same ward or as the one in which he is entitled to vote, then the provisions contained in Rule 45 shall apply. The Presiding Officer, shall at the end of the poll, send the certificate to the Election Officer alongwith the statement mentioned in Rule 57.

(ii) If the polling station at which the person is on duty is not in the ward in which he is entitled to vote, the Presiding Officer shall issue the ballot paper and allow the elector to record his vote in accordance with the certificate issued by the Election Officer. The ballot paper shall then be kept in an envelope meant for that purpose and handed over to the Presiding Officer.

(iii) The Presiding Officer shall make separate packets for each ward putting inside it the envelope containing the ballot papers in which votes have been so recorded, the connected certificates being fastened to the envelopes, seal up each such packet in the manner specified in rule 56 and forward the same to the Election Officer.

53. Closing of Poll—(1) The Presiding Officer shall so regulate the entry of voters that polling proceeds in an orderly manner. All registered voters who appear between the hours fixed for the poll within the polling station shall be allowed to cast his vote. No voter shall be admitted inside the polling station after the time fixed for the closure of the poll.

(2) If any question arises whether any elector was present at the polling station before it was closed, shall be decided by the Presiding Officer and his decision shall be final.

(3) A poll stopped under rule 54 shall also be held in the manner specified in sub-rules (1) and (2) above.

54. Procedure where voting is obstructed and subsequent voting—(1) Where the proceedings at any polling station are seriously interrupted or obstructed by any riot or even violence or otherwise or where a large number of electors are unable to attend the poll at a polling station by reason of any act of God such as flood or fire the Presiding Officer shall stop the poll pending the receipt of the orders of the Election Commission. The fact that the poll has been so stopped shall be immediately announced by the Presiding Officer to the persons present at the polling station.

(2) Where a Presiding Officer stops a poll under sub-rule (1) he shall observe the procedure laid down in Rules 56 and 57 and forthwith make a full report of the circumstances to the Election Officer who shall forward the same expeditiously with his remarks thereon, if any, to the Election Commission.

(3) The Election Commission shall thereupon order—

(a) that the poll be continued at the polling station for the number of hours for which it was not held on the previous occasion; or

(b) that the proceedings at the poll held at the polling station on the previous occasion be ignored and that a fresh poll be held at such polling station for the full number of hours for which it should have been held on the previous occasion.

(4) Any order passed by the Election Commission under this sub-rule shall be final.

(5) Any order passed under sub-rule (3) shall,—

(a) state—

(i) the date on which and hours between which the continuation poll or the fresh poll as the case may be, shall be held; and

(ii) the date on which and the place and hours at which the Election Officer will commence the counting of the votes under the Rule 58, and

(b) be published in the manner laid down in sub-rule (2) of Rule 24, not less than seven days before the date fixed for the continuation poll or for the fresh poll, as the case may be.

(6) (a) Where an order is passed under clause (a) of sub-rule (3) for the continuation of the poll the Election Officer shall proceed, afresh under sub-rule (1) of Rule 35 and return to the Presiding Officer appointed under that sub-rule all the packets received by him under sub-rule (2) of this rule.

(b) The Presiding Officer shall open the packets just before the commencement of the continuation poll in the presence of such persons as may be present at the polling station and commence such poll precisely at the hour fixed therefor in the order passed by the Election Commission under clause (b) of sub-rule (3).

(c) At the continuation poll the Presiding Officer shall allow only such elector to cast his vote who did not cast his vote on the previous occasion.

(7) Where an order is passed under clause (b) of sub-rule (3) for holding a fresh poll the Election Officer shall proceed afresh under sub-rule (1) of Rule 35 and a fresh poll shall be held at the polling station concerned in accordance with the provision of these rules in all respects as if it were being held at such polling station for the first time.

Explanation—There shall be no fresh nomination in cases falling under this sub-rule.

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in the rule, if a candidate dies at anytime before orders are passed by the Election Commission under sub-rule (3) or at anytime after the passing of such order but before the commencement of the continuation poll or of the fresh poll as the case may be, the Election Officer shall upon being satisfied of the fact of the death of the candidate intimate such fact to the Election Commission, stop all further proceedings in connection with the election, and start election proceedings afresh in all respects as if for a new election :

Provided that no fresh nomination shall be necessary in the case of the remaining candidate who stood nominated at the time when the poll was stopped.

55. Spoilt and returned ballot papers—(1) An elector, who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such a manner that it cannot conveniently be used as a ballot paper may, on delivering it to the Presiding Officer and after satisfying him of the inadvertence, be given another ballot paper and the ballot paper returned by the elector shall be marked “Spoilt Cancelled” by the Presiding Officer.

(2) If an elector after obtaining a ballot paper decides not to use it he shall return it to the Presiding Officer and ballot paper so returned shall be marked as “Returned Cancelled” by the Presiding Officer.

(3) If any ballot paper which has been issued to an elector has not been inserted by him into the ballot box but is found anywhere in or near the polling station, whether within or outside the voting compartment it shall be deemed to have been returned to the Presiding Officer under sub-rule (2) and shall be dealt with accordingly.

56. Sealing ballot boxes, keys, ballot papers, etc.—(1) Subject to rule 53 the Presiding Officer shall close the polling station at the hour appointed for closing under rule 24 or sub-rule (4) of rule 54 as the case may be, so as to prevent the admission thereto of any elector after that hour.

(2) The Presiding Officer of each polling station as soon as practicable after the close of the poll shall in the presence of any candidate or polling agents who may be present make separate packets and seal with his own seal and the seals of such candidates or agents as may decide to affix their seals—

- (i) each ballot box in use at such station unopened but with the key (which should also be sealed in the same manner as the ballot box) attached;
- (ii) the tendered ballot papers;
- (iii) the unused ballot papers;
- (iv) the cancelled ballot papers;
- (v) the copy of the electoral roll referred to in sub-rule (4) of Rule 43;
- (vi) the tendered votes list;
- (vii) the list of challenged votes with the statement or statements mentioned in sub-rules (2) and (5) of Rule 51; and
- (viii) the envelopes referred to clause (ii) of sub-rule (2) of Rule 52 and shall forward such packets to the Election Officer.

(3) Each packet shall be numbered and shall bear a note as to its contents the name of the polling station and the name or number of the ward. Where no vote has been recorded at any polling station the Presiding Officer shall submit a nil report together with statement in Form XVIII referred to in Rule 57.

57. Forwarding packets to Election Officer—The packets shall be accompanied by a statement in a separate cover in Form XVIII and made by the Presiding Officer showing the number of ballot papers entrusted to him and accounting for them under the heads of ballot papers in the ballot boxes, unused spoilt and tendered ballot papers.

57A. Voting by Electronic Voting Machines—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the giving and recording of votes by voting machines in the manner specified hereunder may be adopted in such ward or wards as the Election Commission may having regard to the circumstances of each case, specify.

Explanation—For the purpose of these rules “Voting Machine” means any machine or apparatus whether operated electronically or otherwise used for giving or recording of votes and any reference to any ballot box or ballot paper in these rules save as otherwise provided being construed as including a reference to such voting machine whenever such voting machine is used at any election.

(2) Every Electronic Voting Machine (hereinafter referred to as the voting machine) shall have a control unit and a balloting unit and shall be of such design as may be approved by the Election Commission.

57B. Preparation of Voting Machine by the Election Officer—(1) The balloting unit of the voting machine shall contain such particulars and in such language or languages as the Election Commission may specify.

(2) The names of the candidates shall be arranged on the balloting unit in the same order in which they appear in the list of valid nomination for each ward in Form XII.

(3) If two or more candidates bear the same name they shall be distinguished by the addition of their fathers' name or residence.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this rule the Election Officer shall—

(a) fix the label containing the names and symbols of the contesting candidates in the balloting unit and secure that unit with his seal and seals of such of the contesting candidates or their polling agents present as are desirous of affixing the same.

(b) set the number of contesting candidates and close the candidate set section the control unit and secure it with his seal and seals of such of the contesting candidates or their polling agents present as are desirous of affixing the same.

Counting of ballot papers—(1) The counting of votes shall commence on the day and at the place and hour fixed under Rule 24, votes shall be counted by or under the supervision of the Election Officer and each candidate, the election agent of each candidate and one representative of each candidate, authorised in writing by the candidate shall have a right to be present at the time of counting. No other person shall be allowed to be present except such persons as the Election Officer may appoint to assist him in counting votes and no person shall be appointed to assist in counting the votes who has been employed by or on behalf of any candidate for any purpose whatsoever connected with the election.

(2) The Election Officer shall, before he commences to count the votes, read the provision of Section 128 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 to such person as may be present, and shall then proceed as follows:—

(a) Before any ballot box is opened at a counting table, the counting agents present at the table shall be allowed to inspect the paper seal or such other seal as might have been affixed thereon and to satisfy themselves that it is intact. The Election Officer shall satisfy himself that none of the ballot boxes has in fact been tampered with.

(b) The ballot box or boxes and all envelopes which may have been received under Rule 52 for a particular ward shall be opened one after another. The Election Officer shall take out the ballot papers therefrom and count them in order of the serial number of names of candidates appearing in the ballot paper.

(c) Ballot papers of a ward, where there are more than one polling booth, shall be mixed up in a separate container after verification of ballot paper account of each such polling booth, before counting of votes.

(d) If any candidate or, in his absence, his election agent, before declaration of the result of election, requests in writing to the Election Officer to re-examine and recount the votes, the Election Officer shall upon such request re-examine and recount the same without delay. The Election Officer, may, however, re-examine and recount the votes suo motu either once or more than once in any case in which he is not satisfied as the accuracy of any previous count:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall make it obligatory on the Election Officer to re-examine or recount the same votes more than once.

(3) (a) The Election Officer shall allow the candidates and their agents reasonable opportunities to inspect without handling all ballot papers which in his opinion are liable to be rejected. He shall endorse the word “rejected” on every ballot paper which is rejected. If any candidate or agent present questions the correctness of the rejection he shall also record on the ballot paper the grounds for the rejection.

(b) Each ballot paper not rejected under Rule 59 shall be deemed as a valid vote and shall be counted as one valid vote.

(c) The votes polled by each candidate shall be registered in Form No.XIX and any candidate or his agent after the result of election has been declared by the Election Officer under Rules 60 shall on application be permitted to take a copy of the return.

(d) The valid ballot paper found in each ballot box shall thereafter be bundled together and kept along with the bundle of rejected ballot papers, if any found in that box in a separate packet which shall be sealed and on which shall be recorded the name of the Municipality, ward number and the date of counting.

58A. Counting of votes where electronic voting machine have been used—(1) The Election Officer may have the control units of the voting machines used at more than one polling station taken up for scrutiny and inspection and votes recorded in such units counted simultaneously.

(2) Before the votes recorded in any control unit of a voting machine are counted under sub-rule (1), the candidate or his election agent or his counting agent present at the counting table shall be allowed to inspect the paper seal and such other vital seals as might have been affixed on the unit and satisfy themselves that the seals are intact.

(3) The Election Officer shall satisfy himself that none of the voting machine has been tampered with.

58B. Counting of votes—(1) After the Election Officer is satisfied that a voting machine has in fact not been tampered with, he shall have the vote recorded therein counted by pressing the appropriate button marked “Result” provided in the control unit whereby the total votes polled and votes polled by each candidate shall be displayed in respect of each such candidate on the display panel provided for the purpose in the unit.

(2) As the votes polled by each candidate are displayed on the control unit the election officer shall have—

(a) the number of such votes recorded separately in respect of each candidate in Part-II of Form XVIIC;

(b) Part-II of Form XVIIC completed in other respects and signed by the counting supervisor and also by the candidates or their election agents present; and

(c) corresponding entries made in a result sheet in Form XIX.

58C. Sealing of voting machines—(1) After the result of voting recorded in a control unit has been ascertained candidatewise and entered in Part-II of Form XVIIC and Form XIX under Rule 58B, the election officer shall reseal the unit with his seal and the seals of such of the candidates or their election agents present who may desire to affix their seals thereon so however that the result of voting recorded in the unit is not obliterated and the unit retains the memory of such result.

(2) The control unit so sealed shall be kept in a specially prepared box on which the election officer shall record the following particulars, namely:—

- (a) the name or number of the ward,
- (b) the particulars of the polling station where the control unit has been used,

Shri
Shri
Shri
Shri

(2) The voter shall then proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and there he shall place a cross mark in Column (2) against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. He shall then fold the voting paper so as to conceal his vote and deposit the same in a ballot box placed in the view of the President of the meeting.

(3) The ballot box shall be so constructed that the paper may be placed therein but not extracted therefrom without the box being opened.

(4) President of the meeting shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of the Councillors and declare the result of the election in accordance with following manners, namely:—

(i) if there are only two candidates, the one who secures the larger number of votes shall be declared to have been elected. In the event of there being an equality of votes between the two candidates, the President of the meeting shall draw lots in the presence of the Councillors and person whose name is first drawn shall be declared to have been duly elected ;

(ii) If there are more than two candidates, the one who obtains the smallest number of votes shall be eliminated and the votes taken again. If there is an equality of votes among all the candidates, or if two or more candidates lowest on the list have obtained an equal number of votes, the President of the meeting shall ascertain by casting lots in the presence of the Councillors which of such candidates shall be eliminated. The elimination shall be repeated until two candidates only are left when votes shall be taken for the last time and the candidate who secures the larger number of votes shall be declared to have been duly elected. In the event of there being an equality of votes at the final stage between two remaining candidates, the President of the meeting shall draw lots in the presence of the Councillors and the person whose name is first drawn shall be declared to have been duly elected.

73. Withdrawal of candidature—A candidate may withdraw his candidature at any stage of the election.

74. Invalidity of the voting paper—Any voting paper which contains the signature of any of the Councillors taking part in the vote or on which the mark is placed against more than one name shall be invalid.

75. Publication of the election result—Immediately after the meeting, the President of the meeting shall—

(a) prepare a record of the preceding at the meeting and sign it attesting with his initials every correction made therein; and also permit any Councillor present at the meeting to affix his signature to such record, if he expresses his desire to do so;

(b) publish on the Notice Board of the Municipality concerned notification signed by him stating the name of the person elected as Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson as the case may be;

(c) forward a copy of such notification to the Election Commission for publication in the Orissa Gazette.

76. Sealing of voting papers—(1) The President of the meeting shall then seal up the voting papers whether counted or rejected and note on each packet, the number of papers it contains and the election to which it relates.

(2) These packets shall not be opened and their contents shall not be inspected or produced except under the orders of an election tribunal constituted under the Act or of other competent Court.

(3) The Election Officer shall keep the packets for a period of three months after the completion of the election in the concerned Treasury/Sub-Treasury, as the case may be whereafter these shall be destroyed by burning in presence of District Magistrate or any other officer not below the rank of Sub-Collector as may be authorized by the District Magistrates and these packet shall not be opened or their contents inspected or produced except under the orders of the State Election Commission or of an Election Tribunal or Other competent Court:
